

Door Knocking Script

Opening Approach

"Hey, how are you going today?" (Pause for response.)

"Yeah, good, thanks. My name's, I'm from Kismet Finance Group just in Cockburn. We are Just doing a quick survey on the cost of living."

The first Question is!

- Has the cost of living increase affected your household? (Let them respond.)
- Do you think you pay too much tax? (Pause for response.)
- Do you work full-time, part-time, or self-employed?
- Do you know the best interest rate for your current home loan? (If yes, acknowledge. If no, move on.)
- We have an age bracket here: Are you 20-35, 35-45, 45-55, or 55+? (Wait for response.)

"Now the last two questions are to do with retirement, as you are aware the government seem to be making it harder and harder for us to retire these days"

- Are you confident you'll have enough money for retirement? (Let them answer.)
- Would you and your partner have a combined superannuation balance of:
 - $0 – 100k
 - 100k+ (Wait for their response)

"Awesome. Just a name for yourself?" (Write it down.)

"Now, there will be 50 homes in your area of receiving a Smart Money Pack as a thank-you for helping out today. They might call for feedback on how I'm doing, just to make sure I'm polite, professional, and dressed well. Would you be happy to put in a good word for me?" (If yes, proceed.)

"Great! What's your best contact number?" (Write it down.)

"Appreciate your time. Have a great day!" (Exit professionally.)

Key Notes for the Door Knockers:

Keep it natural – This is a short survey, not a sales pitch.

Don't over-explain – Stick to the script, guide conversations back to the next question.

Keep it flowing – If they hesitate, smoothly move on.

Confidence is key – If you sound unsure, they'll shut the door.

Don't push the Smart Money Pack – The goal is to get their name and number effortlessly.

This script works, stick to it, and you'll get results.
